

Foothills of the Himalayas Tour accommodation

Travelling outside India's main tourist areas, the choice of accommodation is a little more limited. However, we have still been able to choose good, comfortable hotels. One of the highlights of the tour is a stay in the Judge's Court, a heritage property in the small village of Pragpur and a firm favourite with our clients.

Ranjit's Svaasa, Amritsar

Blending the traditional and contemporary, this heritage property offers a peaceful retreat in Amritsar. Situated in the heart of Amritsar, the hotel offers colonial style architecture, beautiful gardens and a good range of facilities.

Rooms: All 20 en suite rooms are equipped with safe, telephone and tea & coffee making facilities.

Facilities: Dining room and spa pavilion.

Judges Court, Pragpur

A 300 year old ancestral home set in stunning gardens and overlooking the Dhauladhar mountains. Nearly all the food provided in the hotel is organic and grown in the grounds of the property. The gardens offer different fruit trees - mango, lychees, grape, plum, persimmon, citrus and other exotic trees, which you are welcome to pick. During your free time you are welcome to sit in the peaceful garden, an ideal place for relaxing and reading. Alternatively there are lots of places to go walking, fishing, or bird watching; maps are available from the hotel and the staff will be more than happy to help with suggestions of where to go.

Rooms: Individually furnished offering en suite bathrooms and tea & coffee making facilities.

Facilities: A restaurant and a small plunge pool.

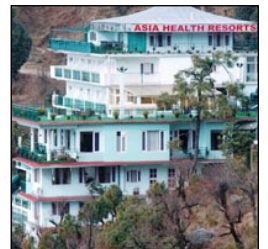

Asia Health Resort, Dharamsala

Located about 7 miles from the centre of Dharamsala, amid beautiful scenery, this simple hotel offers a functional base from which to explore.

Rooms: 20 air conditioned en suite rooms, television, mini bar, tea & coffee making facilities and safe.

Facilities: Various restaurants, bar, swimming pool and gym.

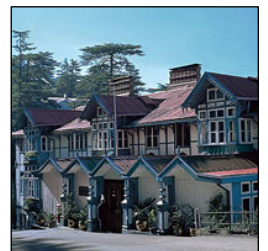

Clarks Hotel, Shimla

This charming heritage property, dating back to 1898, is located along Shimla's central promenade. The hotel is renowned for the high level of service and facilities including a delightful terrace bar offering picturesque mountain views. The elegantly furnished rooms are spacious and comfortable.

Rooms: All en suite rooms offer a television and mini bar.

Facilities: Restaurant, terrace and bar.

Crowne Plaza, Delhi

This superior hotel is located in the heart of downtown Delhi and is close to shopping malls and the city's historic attractions. The extensive facilities include an outdoor swimming pool, spa & fitness centre, and gift shop. There is a superb selection of restaurants, including a pastry shop and rooftop restaurant.

Rooms: All air conditioned rooms offer en suite bathrooms, television, mini bar, safe and tea & coffee making facilities.

Facilities: Various restaurants and bars, swimming pool and gym.

