

Wildlife of Borneo Tour accommodation

The accommodation chosen for this tour varies between city hotels with extensive facilities to simple but charming lodges set amid beautiful surroundings. Whilst facilities at the lodges are comparatively limited, these are delightful places to stay - we recommend bringing a book as entertainment options are limited.

Hyatt Regency, Kota Kinabalu

Overlooking the island studded South China Sea, the Hyatt Regency offers comfortable accommodation within easy reach of Kota Kinabalu's shopping and entertainment area.

Rooms: All 288 air conditioned rooms offer en suite bathrooms, television, mini bar, safe & tea and coffee making facilities.

Facilities: Choice of restaurants, bar, outdoor swimming pool and fitness centre.

Mountain Lodge, Kinabalu National Park

A simple local lodge located at the foot of Mount Kinabalu Park (6000ft above sea level) is in a simply stunning lush mountainous setting. It is ideally located for exploring the surrounding natural environment on the many nearby nature trails.

Rooms: All 23 simply furnished rooms offer en suite bathrooms and ceiling fans.

Facilities: Restaurant serving simple food.

Shabaan Resthouse, Sukau rainforest

Set on the banks of the Kinabatangan River in the Sukau Rainforest, this simple lodge is ideal for spotting the abundant wildlife in the surrounding forest.

Rooms: Each room has en suite bathrooms

Facilities: Dining area

Sabah Hotel, Sandakan

Nestled amid lush rainforest vegetation in the town of Sandakan, this comfortable hotel complements the lodge style accommodation, offering a chance to enjoy the more extensive facilities, which include an attractive freeform swimming pool, jacuzzi, steam room and sauna. The main restaurant serves a mixture of western and Asian dishes and the bar is ideal for afternoon tea and sunset cocktails.

Rooms: All 108 air conditioned rooms offer en suite bathrooms, television, mini bar and tea & coffee making facilities.

Facilities: Restaurant, café, bar, currency exchange, outdoor swimming pool, fitness centre and tennis courts.

